COSY CANDLES

As the darker nights creep in and the temperature drops, we look to calm both body and mind.

Whether you're snuggling up with a good book, hosting an intimate gathering or enjoying some much-needed "me time," winter candle scents will elevate your cosy moments to new heights.

These enchanting winter scents embrace you in a warm, inviting moment. The flickering flames of candles bring much-needed balance and moments of contemplation.

RESTORATIVE RELAXATION

Our Winter Candle Collection is a selection of sultry and relaxing scents, that although they have almost the anticipation of Christmas are not Christmas fragrances.

These scents have been specifically selected to embrace the winter months but also create a calming, sophisticated and comforting ambience during those winter months.
