CARVANSONS

A World of Fragrance

The month of Ramadan is highly cherished by Muslims as it is a time of fasting, known as one of the fundamental pillars of Islam.

During this period, Muslims refrain from consuming food and drink from sunrise to sunset.

This month serves as a test of patience and determination for every Muslim, as they dedicate themselves to prayer in both their homes and mosques.

CARVANSONS

A World of Fragrance

Although this is a time of reflection and restraint, this period has a wide array of associated scents; many of which relate to the breaking of the fast.

Many relate to the foods eaten once the fast has been broken but there are also any number of ceremonial scents which are linked to the holy period.

From musk, rose and amber, to the woody and aromatic scents of oud, incense and bakhoor.

CARVANSONS

A World of Fragrance

Our Ramadan Fragrance Collection is our interpretation of the wonderful aromas and scents associated with this special time for Muslims.

The Ramadan Collection is a collection of six contemplative and calming scents linked to this period of reflection and celebration.
